People - Additional Thoughts

6 If you would like to comment on any of the ISSUES or OPPORTUNITIES under the PEOPLE theme, or any that were not listed, please express your views below.

Please tell us here:

In a very rural area, such as Stinsford parish, there is no alternative other than car for most people so many of the issues or opportunities do not apply. There are no cycle paths linking settlements or into the closest town and the main rights of way are flooded and inaccessible for several months of the year. The parish exists outside of any current travel plan. Joined up transport options are required, including regular and affordable public transport and safe roads.

11 If you would like to comment on any of the ISSUES or OPPORTUNITIES under the PLACE theme, or any that were not listed, please express your views below.

Please tell us here:

The questions under this theme have a predominantly urban perspective and do not relate to small rural parishes. It should be noted that traffic on narrow country lanes result in pollution and safety issues; this is not unique to urban places.

There is a need for comprehensive public transport between rural Dorset and its towns including more direct, safe and continuous non-motor vehicle routes.

Activity - Additional Thoughts

16 If you would like to comment on any of the ISSUES or OPPORTUNITIES under the ACTIVITY theme, or any that were not listed, please express your views below.

Please tell us here:

There is an urban bias in the questions asked.

All rural settlements should be linked by quality active travel opportunities within a six-mile radius of a town centre. Active travel in rural areas requires additional investment to ensure the safety of those walking, cycling and using mobility vehicles.

Final thoughts

The provision of a walking and cycling route linking Charminster with Dorchester.

There are no good examples of any form of effective transport - active, public transport, traffic management, speed control, safety measures - within Stinsford parish.
